

The Federal Government has a responsibility to ensure that no child's education is shortchanged because of federal land ownership. And in my view, it's only fair that the Federal Government take care of federally impacted schools before launching a brand new spending program costing billions of dollars that's aimed at other schools that aren't federally impacted.

I offered two amendments in the Rules Committee yesterday. The first would have required that our commitment to federally impacted schools be met through full funding of the Impact Aid program before funding is spent on the new federal spending program in this bill. My second amendment would have simply given preference to federally impacted schools as the new construction and maintenance funds are distributed.

Unfortunately, Democrat leaders again blocked both of my amendments from being debated or voted on today by the full House.

Mr. Speaker, the federal government is not meeting its current responsibilities to federally impacted schools. As I said last year, we certainly have no business creating a brand new $33 billion spending program for other schools—especially at a time when the federal deficit is at astonishing levels.

Rather than passing this massive expansion of the Federal Government's role in school construction, we should refocus our efforts toward fulfilling existing obligations to schools and children impacted by federal actions.

I urge my colleagues to reject this restrictive rule and the underlying bill.

Mr. POLIS. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time and move the previous question on the resolution.

Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. BOREN. Mr. Speaker, something very important occurred yesterday at the Prince George's County Trap and Ski Club. The Congressional Sportsmen's Caucus along with the Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation came together, Democrats and Republicans, to have our annual shoot-out, and the results are as follows:

The top Republican shooter was Adam Putnam with a score of 53; the top Democrat, Mike Thompson, with a score of 59. The top gun member was Colin Peterson with 65. The top skeet shooter was me at 19. The top trap was Representative CARNEY at 21. Top sporting clays was Paul Ryan at 19.

But the most important, ladies and gentlemen, Democrats, 354; Republicans, 325. We have regained the trophy again this year.
